MILITARY POLICE OBSERVATIONS UPON ARRIVAL:
(b) (3) (A), (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) Upon making contact with GONZALEZ (Complainant) in Military Police Precinct Futenma (MPP/F), she informed me that her flak jacket was stolen 30 July 22. After the flak jacket was stolen, GONZALEZ completed a lost or damage gear statement with her command, but was informed that she needed to file a report with PMO.
STATEMENT:
GONZALEZ (Complainant), is the resident of BEQ 229, Rm.104 and was identified by her Armed Forces Identification (AFID) card. A Written Voluntary Statement was received by (b) (3) (A), (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) at 1030, 23 Aug 22, stated below:
On July 30th, GONZALEZ cleaned her flak jacket and placed it on her rack in room 104 in order for it to dry. During the time it was air drying, GONZALEZ propped her door using the door latch to go to and from her room to do laundry and for her roommate to move in to the room. Approximately 20 minutes upon returning to her room, GONZALEZ noticed that her flak jacket was missing from her rack. GONZALEZ searched her room thinking it was miss placed and asked her roommate if she had seen it. GONZALEZ'S roommate had not seen it during the time of moving in to the room.
On 23 Aug 22 at 1028, GONZALEZ verbally stated to military police that she does not know who would have taken her flack jacket, nor if there have been any similar incidents in the barracks.

DETERMINATION:

After reviewing the Manual for Courts Martial (2019), the theft of the flak jacket was found to have met the elements for Article 121: Military property of United States—Larceny and wrongful appropriation.

MLG JULY 30th I was cleaning my Flakjacket and hung it to noticed and I thought perhaps I had move it. When I saw my roommate later that day she said she hadn't been in the room in the morning when and during the time it went missing. She said she didn't move it either. That is when I started searching & realized it was gone.
